(a) Schoolcraft (Henry R.)—Information Respecting the History, Condition and Prospects of the Indian Tribes of the United States; collected and prepared under the Bureau of Indian Affairs per Act of Congress, 1847, by Henry R. Schoolcraft, LL.D., splendidly illustrated in tints and on steel by S. Eastman, U.S.A., 5 thick vols., royal 4to, half morocco; in all respects a fine copy. $45. Philadelphia, 1853.

"Schoolcraft's work was intended to be a great encyclopædia of information relating to the American Aborigines. * * * It has, indeed, performed a very important service for Indian history, in collecting and preserving an immense amount of historic data. Vocabularies of Indian languages, grammatical analyses, legends of various tribes, biographies of chiefs and warriors, narratives of captivities, histories of Indian wars, emigration and theories of their origin, are all related and blended in an extraordinary * * manner. A very large number of beautiful steel engravings, representative of some phase of Indian life and customs, are contained in the work, but the most valuable of its illustrations are the drawings of weapons, domestic utensils, instruments of gaming and amusement, sorcery and medicine, objects of worship, their sculptures, paintings, and fortifications, pictograph writing, dwellings, and every form of antiquities which have been discovered. The volumes contain 336 full page plates, representing thousands of the scenes and objects named."—Field.

(b) Voyages and Travels of an Indian Interpreter and Trader, describing the manners and customs of the North American Indians, with an account of the Posts situated on the River St. Lawrence, Lake Ontario, etc., to which is added a vocabulary of the Chippeway language, names of Furs and Skins in English and French, a list of words in the Iroquois, Mohegan, Shawnee, and Esquimaux tongues, and a Table shewing the analogy between the Algonkin and Chippeway Language, by J. Long. Folding map, 4to, boards, $9.75. London (printed for the Author), 1791.

(c) Rogers (Major Robert).—A Concise Account of North America, containing a description of the several British Colonies on that Continent, including the Island of Newfoundland, Cape Breton, etc., to which is subjoined an account of the several nations and tribes of Indians residing in those parts, as to their customs, manners, government, numbers, etc., containing many useful and entertaining facts never before treated of, by Major Robert Rogers, 8vo, pp. viii. + 264, calf, $7.50. London, 1765.

This historical essay, by the famous partizan officer and Indian fighter, * * * is not without merit. In the concise account of the several colonies, he mingles many particulars of the Indian nations; but its especial interest is to be found in the section of his volume devoted to the "customs, manners and government of the Indians," pp. 205 to 264. These relations are the result of his own personal experience among the savages.

(d) Universal Travel—The Universal Traveller, or a Complete Description of the Several Nations of the World, giving their situation, their produce, the manners and customs of the people, and the history of each nation, by Mr. Salmon. Illustrated by charts and maps and hundreds of fine copper plates. 2 thick volumes, large folio, newly bound in half calf, $12.
London, 1752.

Contains very rare and curious matter on America,

(e) Harris' Collection of Travels.—Complete Collection of Voyages and Travels, consisting of above six hundred of the most authentic writers, including Hackluit, Purchass, DeBrye, Herrera, Oviedo, and such other histories, voyages, travels or discoveries as are in general esteem, containing whatever has been observed worthy of notice in Europe, Asia, Africa and America, by John Harris, F.R.S. Illustrated with charts, maps, and hundreds of copper plates. 2 thick volumes, royal folio, newly bound in half calf, $12. London, 1764.

"As to Harris' collection, let any one inspect the curious contents only of the first volume . . . and he will not hesitate a moment respecting the importance of the work."—Dibdin. Contains accounts of the voyages of Father Hennepin, La Salle, Baron La Hontan, John Lederer, etc., etc. It gives also a history of the Buccaniers of America, and Sir John Narborough's voyage to the straits of Magellan.

(f) Gottfriedt (Johann Ludwig).—Newe Welt und Americanische Historien. Inhaltende Warhafftige und volkommene Beschreibungen aller West Indianischen Landschafften Insulen, etc. Profusely illustrated with curious and beautiful old plates. Folio vellum, $45.
Frankfurt. Beydenen Merianischen Erben, 1665.

John Phillippe Abelin, better known under the name of John Louis Gottfriedt, was a contributor to and co-laborer in the volumes of the Great and Small Voyages, published by Merian, the son-in-law of Théodore de Bry. He continued his labors by the publication of this volume which is considered as an abridgement of the Great Voyages. The work is divided into three parts, of which the first serves as introduction, containing the history, geography, natural history, etc., of the new world, taken from the publications of Oviedo, Acosta, Peter Martyr, etc. The second part contains accounts of thirty-three expeditions or voyages to America, from Columbus to those of Spilberg and Schonten. The third part contains accounts of Greenland and other northern lands.

(g) Cartwright's Labrador.—A Journal of Transactions and Events during a residence of nearly sixteen years on the coast of Labrador, containing many interesting particulars, both of the country and its inhabitants, not hitherto known. Illustrated with copper plates and charts. By George Cartwright. 3 vols. in 2. 4to, half russia, very rare, $14. Newark, 1792.

"Among the great mass of details of a fur-hunter's life, which those immense quartos afford us, some particulars of the Aborigines of the Peninsula of Labrador may be gleaned, not elsewhere obtainable."—Field.

(h) Charlevoix (P. de).—Histoire et description générale de la Nouvelle France, avec Le Journal Historique d'un Voyage fait par ordre du Roi dans l'Amérique Septentrionale, par le P. de Charlevoix, de la Compagnie de Jésus, 6 vols., duo-decimo ; folding map and plates, old calf, fine clean copy, $22.50. Paris, 1744.

The extraordinary man, who was the author of these volumes, left no subject relating to the history of the affairs of his wonderful order in America untouched, and as the Missions of the Company of Jesus among the Indians were the principal purpose of the fathers in both of the Americas, the curiosity of Charlevoix permeated every accessible square mile of their surface to learn the habits, the customs and the secrets of the life of the strange people his brethren sought to subdue to the influence of the cross.

"It is doing no more than justice to the merit of Charlevoix, to say that in all the high qualities requisite for a great historian he has no superior."—Field.

(i) Sagard (Gabriel).—Le Grand Voyage au Pays des Hurons Situé en l'Amérique vers la mer douce, ès derniers confins de la Nouvelle France dite Canada, avec un Dictionnaire de la Langue Huronne, par F. Gabriel Sagard, Théodat, nouvelle édition, 2 vols., 8vo, half red morocco, $13.50. Paris, 1865.

Father Sagard, a member of the Recollets in Paris, was directed by a congregation of his order to accompany Father Nicholas in a mission to the savages of New France. Arriving at Quebec, he at once proceeded to the scene of his mission among the Hurons, one hundred and fifty leagues west of Quebec. Here he labored for a time, endeavouring to bring the Indians to a knowledge of God, and at the same time he was carefully observing their manners, ceremonies, and remarkable customs.

(j) Sagard (Gabriel).—Histoire du Canada et Voyages que les Frères Messieurs Récollets y ont faits pour la Conversion des Infidèles depuis l'an 1615, par Gabriel Sagard, Théodat, avec un Dictionnaire de la Langue Huronne, nouvelle edition, publiée par M. Edwin Tross, 4 vols., 8vo, half red morocco, top edges gilt, beautiful spotless copy, $23. Paris, 1866.

"The travels and missionary labors of the Recollets among the Indians of Canada for nine years before the arrival of Father Sagard form the subject of Book I. The narrative of his grand voyage to the country of the Hurons, which appeared three years before, is extended by additional particulars from chapter XXII. in the edition of 1632. to XLVI. in Book II. of the Grand Voyage with new matter, increasing it from 85 to 135 pages. Book IV. contains the history of the Recollet missions to the end of 1629. The dictionary of the Huron language, which formed a part of Sagard's first book, is exactly reproduced in the Histoire, together with four pages of what he styles an Indian Hymn to the Devil, with the musical notes of the drone or howl in which it was chanted. Mr. Tross has added to his edition a brief sketch, by Mr. Chevalier, of the Recollet Missions, and a criticism upon the works of Father Sagard, in which he arraigns Charlevoix with great severity for his harsh judgment of them."—Field,

k) Relations des Jesuites.—Contenant ce qui s'est Passé de plus remarquable dans les Missions des Pères de la Compagnie de Jésus dans la Nouvelle France, 3 thick vols., imperial 8vo, sewed, a fine copy, $18.50. Quebec, 1858.

This reprint of the Jesuit Relations, of which but a small edition was printed, has now naturally become scarce and will shortly become wholly unprocurable.

The "Jesuit Relations," as they are called, are among the most important of all the publications extant relating to the discovery and settlement of New France. The earliest missionaries, to whom we are indebted for these valuable "Relations," arrived in Canada in 1625, and at once made themselves acquainted with the Indian languages. They pushed on to what was then the Far West, and established their missions among the Hurons and other tribes, extending to Lake Superior and the Upper Mississippi. Before seven years had elapsed, from the time of their arrival at Quebec, they had explored this vast and hitherto unknown region, from the Gulf of St. Lawrence to Lake Superior, and had planted the cross among its aboriginal tribes. It is fortunate for the world that these Jesuit Missionaries were men of learning and observation, as they have left us not only narratives of their travels and operations, but have given us particular accounts of the countries where they dwelt, of their productions, and of the Indian tribes which then swarmed throughout them. Every year thay transmitted to the "Pere Provincial" of the company of Jesuits, their head, at Quebec, their journals or relations, which were sent to France and at once published. These interesting narratives did much towards keeping up an interest in the mission, in obtaining supplies for their support, and in inducing others zealous in the cause of conversion of the Indians to devote themselves to the missionary enterprise. These Relations extend from the year 1632 to 1679. Of their merit, Charlevoix pronounces the following opinion: "As those Fathers were scattered among the nations with which the French were in relation, and as their missions obliged them to enter into the affairs of the colony, their memoirs may be said to embrace an elaborate history thereof. There is no other source to which we can apply for instruction as to the progress of Religion, or for a knowledge of these people, all of whose languages they spoke. The style of these 'Relations' is extremely simple; but this simplicity itself has not contributed less to give them a great celebrity than the curious and edifying matter they contain."—Histoire de la Nouvelle France.

(l) LeBeau.—Aventures du Sieur C. LeBeau, ou Voyage Curieux et Nouveau parmi les Sauvages de l'Amérique dans lequel on trouvera une description du Canada, avec une Relation très particulière des Anciennes Coutumes, Mœurs & Fagons de vivre des Barbares, etc. Maps and folding plates. 2 vols., post 8vo, calf, nice clean copy, $10. Amsterdam, 1738.

Original edition. "His narrative has, it is fair to say, been deemed by good scholars a veracious history, and this is not improbable, for, in the eccentric whims of the writers of veritable statements, there have not been wanting some who have attempted to make their true history look like fiction."—Field.

(m) Hennepin.—Aenmerkelke Voyagie Gedaan na't Gedeelte van Noorder America, Behelzende een nieuwe ontdekkinge van een feer groot Lund, gelegen tuffchen Nieuw Mexico en de Ys-Zee, etc. Door Lodewyk Hennepin. Maps and plates. Small 4to, vellum, $19.75. Leyden, 1704.

Bound in with Hennepin's work is a rare production by H. Benzo, entitled, "De Gedenkwaardige West-Indise Voyagien Gedaan door Christoffel Columbus, Americus Vesputius, en Lodewyck Hennepin," etc. Published at Leyden in 1704, containing 99 pp.

(n) Another copy, same as above, but dated Leyden, 1702. Small 4to, half vellum, $18.75.

Bound in at the back is "Aanhangsel, Behelzende Reyze Na een Gedeelte van de Spaansche West-Indien door Louis de Capiné, Benevens een Be Schryring van de Expedite der Franschen Cartagena, in den jaare 1697." Maps and plates. Very rare.

20 Rainbow in the North.—A short Account of the First Establishment of Christianity in Rupert's Land by the Church Missionary Society, by S. Tucker. With map and numerous illustrations. 12mo, cloth, $1.40. London, 1851.

21 Fergusson (A.)—Practical Notes made during a tour in Canada, and a portion of the United States, in 1831, by Adam Fergusson. 12mo, cloth, $1.50. London, 1833.

22 McLean (J.)—Notes of a Twenty-five Years' Service in the Hudson's Bay Territory, by John McLean. 2 vols. in 1. 12mo, cloth, $3.75.
London, 1849.

Besides the relations of personal adventures among the Indians, the author has given the circumstances connected with some of the appalling massacres by which the employés of the Hudson's Bay Company have been swept off at several of their lone posts. The last volume terminates with a vocabulary of Indian dialects. Amongst other curious matters, McLean offers reasons for believing in the Indian origin of that frightful disease, syphilis.

23 Thomas (C.)—Contributions to the History of the Eastern Townships; a work containing an account of the early settlement of St. Armand, Dunham, Sutton, Brome, Patton, and Bolton, by C. Thomas. 12mo, cloth, $1.50. Montreal, 1866.

Hope, New South Wales, and Van Dieman's Land, by William Kingdom. 8vo, half calf. Very scarce. $4.75. London, 1820.

33 Ohio.—Fugitive Essays upon interesting and useful subjects, relating to the early history of Ohio, by Charles Whittlesey. 12mo, cloth. Rare, $1.25. Hudson, Ohio, 1852.

34 Ohio.—Two Years' Residence in the New Settlements of Ohio, with directions to emigrants, by D. Griffiths. With frontispiece. 8vo, cloth, $3. London, 1835.

A copy of the above seldom occurs for sale.

35 Lanman (C.)—Essays for Summer Hours, by Charles Lanman. With frontispiece. Post 8vo, cloth. Rare. Boston, 1842.

36 Galt (J.)—The Autobiography of John Galt. 2 vols., 12mo, cloth, $2.75. Philadelphia, 1833.

John Galt was extensively connected with the origin and progress of several Canadian towns, including Guelph. He gives a vivid description of the early backwoods days.

37 Atala.—Réné les Abencérages, suivis du voyage en Amérique, par M. le Vicomte de Châteaubriand. 12mo, half calf, $1.25. Paris, 1851.

A story of America by the great French writer.

39 American Ornithology, or the Natural History of the Birds of the United States, by Alexander Wilson and Charles L. Bonaparte. Edited by Robert Jameson, with portrait and frontispieces. 4 vols., post 8vo, cloth, $4.00. Edinburgh, 1831.

40 North America.—The History of North America, containing a Review of the Customs and Manners of the Original Inhabitants; Their Rise and Progress, from the earliest period to the time of their becoming united free and independent States; by the Rev. Mr. Cooper. Embellished with copper-plate cuts. 16mo, calf, very rare, $2.25. London, 1789.

41 Arfwedson (C. D.)—The United States and Canada, in 1832, 1833, and 1834, by C. D. Arfwedson, with frontispiece. 2 vols. in one, thick royal 8vo, cloth, $1.75. London, 1834.

Shabby copy, but priced accordingly.

42 Rawlings (T.)—The Confederation of the British North American Provinces; their past history and future prospects, with suggestions on the true and practical route from the Atlantic to the Pacific Ocean. Illustrated. Royal 8vo, cloth, $1.50. London, 1865.

46 Beechey (Capt. F. W.)—Narrative of a voyage to the Pacific and Behring's Strait, to co-operate with the Polar Expeditions ; performed in His Majesty's ship Blossom, under the command of Capt. F. W. Beechey, R.N., in the years 1825-26-27-28. Illustrated with maps and numerous plates. 2 vols., 8vo, cloth, rare, $4.50. London, 1831.

The Mission Fathers which Beechey gives us particulars about, long isolated from the civilized world, had become, it seems, as severe tyrants in their little monarchies as any of the secular class, and regularly recruited their subjects from the wild tribes of savages by expeditions against them, in which fire and sword had more victims than the cord and the prison.

47 Franklin (J.)—Narrative of a Journey to the shores of the Polar Sea, in the years 1819-20-21-22, by John Franklin, Capt. R.N., with map, 2 vols., 8vo, half calf, $2.25. London, 1824

Is a native composition, partly in the Canienga (or Mohawk) and partly in the Onondaga language. It comprises the speeches, songs, and other ceremonies which, from the earliest period of the Confederacy, have composed the proceedings of their Council when a deceased Chief is lamented and his successor is installed in office. The fundamental laws of the League, a list of the ancient towns, and the names of the Chiefs who composed their first Council, are also comprised in the work. It is valuable, not merely for its historical import—which may be said to carry back the authentic history of Northern America to a period fifty years earlier than the era of Columbus—but also for the new light which it casts upon the Indian character and social life, etc.

"The engravings, their variety, their excellence, their interest have never been surpassed in a book of the kind. They illustrate manners and customs, natural scenery, accidents of adventure, popular superstitions, methods of sepulture, and we have no room to say what beside. But the interest of the work does not depend on its engravings, profuse and excellent as they are. The narrative is enthralling. Never has there been given to the world such a picture of South America, in its grandeur and its depravity. . . . Facts, traditions, superstitions, geology, geography, and anthropology, history, botany and architecture, shoulder each other through the entrancing pages of this book, for which European science owes a deep debt of gratitude to M. Marcoy." —Lond. Standard.

New York, 1859.

"One of the most eloquent of our female writers."—Christopher North. This is how Toron[illegible] struck Mrs. Jameson:—"What Toronto may be in summer, I cannot tell; they say it is a pretty place. At present its appearance to me, a stranger, is most strangely mean and melancholy. A little ill-built town on low land, at the bottom of a frozen bay, with one very ugly church without tower or steeple, some government offices built of staring red brick in the most tasteless, vulgar style imaginable."

611 New Brunswick.—Government's Reports on the Geology, the Railroads, Produce, Export and Import Trade, Coal and other combustible minerals, agriculture, economic minerals, etc. Colored plans and maps. Thick 8vo, half bound, a scarce collection, $5.00. Fredericton, 1865, etc.

London, n. d.

697 Cook's Voyages.—A New, Authentic, and Complete Collection of Voyages Around the World, containing a complete Historical account of Capt. Cook's First, Second, Third and Last Voyages, successively performed in the years 1763 to 1780; newly written by the editors from the authentic journals under the direction of George William Anderson, assisted by officers of the Royal Navy. With two hundred and twenty engravings on copper. Thick folio, half Russia, scarce, $12.00. London, 1781.

An edition of Cook's Voyages little known for the reason, perhaps, that it was published in numbers, and very few sets have been bound up. It is unknown to most of the bibliographical authorities.

"The spirit, disinterestedness, physical and intellectual energies of Captain James Cook, fitted him in an especial manner for the various and extraordinary discoveries which he so successfully accomplished, and to which, alas! he fell a victim and a sacrifice."—Dibdin.

698 Pinkerton's General Collection of Voyages and Travels, from the earliest ages to the present time, illustrated with nearly 200 fine engravings by Cooke. 17 vols., 4to, handsomely whole bound calf, rebacked, very handsome library set, $45. 1808–14.

An invaluable collection. Pub. £37 16s. All the Travels worthy of preservation contained in the former large collections by Churchill, Green, Harris, the Harleian, Pocoke, Shaw, etc., are here reprinted; many volumes of high price are given entire. Translations and extracts of many important Travels not before known in the English language are likewise intermingled; and from this point of view it is believed the purchaser of this work could not procure the same collection in the original for less than $2,000. This set, from its handsome state, should find a place in a Public Library or Institution.

"The most valuable collection of voyages extant. . . . The 17th volume contains a copious Catalogue of Books on Voyages and Travels, and an excellent index."—Dibdin.

Among others the set contains, Peter Kalm's Travels into North America; Smith's Virginia; Smith's New England; Lahontan's Travels in Canada; Ulloa's Travels through South America, etc., etc.

699 Curious.—Poems, Satirical and Sentimental, on many subjects connected with Canada, including a complete exposure of County Court and Division Court system, in several Theatrical Acts and Dialogues, showing how the people have been and are now victimized; also a dissertation on the doings of the Canada Company's Land-jobbing, and other matters, by Robert McBride. Post 8vo, cloth, very scarce, $1.25. London, U.C., 1869.

Shabby copy, considerably defaced by some school boy.

700 French Treaty.—Observations upon the Treaty between the Crowns of Great Britain, France and Spain, concluded at Seville on the 9th of November, 1729. Post 8vo, boards, rare, $1.25. London, 1729.

701 Rare American Novel.—The Asylum, or Alonzo and Melissa, an American Tale, founded on Fact, by I. Mitchell. Frontispiece. 2 vols., post 8vo, pp. 264 and 278, original boards, $12.00. Poughkeepsie, 1811.

The above copy is not in the best possible condition. Still, it is complete, and the leaves being uncut, it would bind up all right. The original edition is of extreme rarity. It is not mentioned by either Lowndes, Duyckinck, or Allibone; nor did Murphy have a copy. The fact of its being overlooked is perhaps owing to its having been published in a country town, where it doubtless fell still-born from the press. Some one, however, reprinted it thirty or forty years ago under the title of "Alonzo and Melissa; by Daniel Jackson, Jr.," and it immediately had a large circulation. Who I. Mitchell was, or whether I. Mitchell and Daniel Jackson, Jr., were one and the same person, are questions that need to be investigated. The book attained sufficient popularity to excuse some efforts being made to do justice to one of the earliest American novelists. The long preface of the book contains a curious dissertation on novel writing.

702 Brown (Charles Brockden).—Memoirs of Charles Brockden Brown, the American novelist, with selections from his original letters and miscellaneous writings, by William Dunlap. 8vo, boards, uncut, very rare, $2.75. London, 1822.

First edition. It was afterwards partly reprinted in 1832, in the first volume of a collected edition of Brown's works.

703 Brown (John, of Harper's Ferry)—The Public Life of Captain John Brown, by James Redpath, with an Autobiography of his Childhood and Youth. Fine portrait on steel. Post 8vo, cloth, $1.50. Boston, 1860.

704 Canada.—Items (in life of an Usher) on Travel, Anecdote, and Popular Errors, by One in Retirement. Second edition. Post 8vo, cloth, [illegible]. Rare. Quebec, 1855.

[illegible] men and things in Canada and elsewhere.

705 Quebec.—Quebec, Past and Present; a History of Quebec, 1608-1876, in two parts, by J. M. Le Moine. Plates. 8vo, cloth, scarce, $4.00. Quebec, 1876.

Long out of print.

706 Rare Atlas.—Introduction à la Géographie ou sont-la Geographié Astronomique, qui explique la correspondence du Globe Terrestre avec la Sphere. La Géographie Naturelle, qui donne les divisions de toutes les parties de la terre et de l'eau, etc., par le Sieur Sanson d'Abbeville. With 132 large and curious colored maps and plans. 2 thick vols., Atlas folio, half calf, $18. Amsterdam, 1696.

The above is one of the splendid and costly Atlases produced during the seventeenth century, in a style of magnificence never equalled since. Sanson's is a work of undoubted character, bearing the highest testimony to the learning and labor of the geographer. The maps are finely colored by hand. There are several maps on America, including a very curious one of the country surrounding Hudson's Bay.

707 Red River.—Hind's Narrative of the Canadian Red River Exploring Expedition of 1857, and of the Assiniboine and Saskatchewan Exploring Expedition of 1858. With 20 fine colored plates and numerous wood engravings. 2 vols., 8vo, cloth, uncut, $9.25. London, 1860.

Long out of print.

708 Lake Winnepeek.—Keating's Narrative of an Expedition to the source of St. Peter's Lake (Lake Winnepeek) in 1823. From the Notes by Say, Calhoun, etc. Map and plates. 2 vols. in 1. 8vo, boards, $6.50. London, 1825.

This important book is now becoming very scarce, and will shortly, no doubt, be unprocurable.

709 Hudson's Bay.—An account of Six Years' Residence in Hudson's Bay, from 1733 to 1736, and 1744 to 1747; containing a variety of facts tending to show the vast importance of the countries about Hudson's Bay, by Joseph Robson. Maps and plans. Post 8vo, calf, $4.75. London, 1752.

710 Iceland.—Travels in the Island of Iceland during the summer of the year MDCCCX., by Sir George S. Mackenzie. Finely illustrated by highly colored engravings. 4to, brown morocco, $15.75. Second edition; rare. Edinburgh, ——.

711 Indian Portraits.—A series of Sixty splendid Portraits of eminent Indians, highly colored by hand, in imitation of the original paintings preserved at the Indian Department, Washington: with biographical sketches and anecdotes, by Thomas L. McKenney and James Hall. 2 vols., royal folio, half calf, $30. Philadelphia, 1837.

The above work embraces about one-half of McKenney and Hall's costly series. The plates are large enough for framing purposes, and are accurate and beautiful portraits of celebrated chiefs; including Red Jacket, Little Crow, Black Hawk, Joseph Brant, John Brant, The Prophet, etc., etc., all colored with the greatest care to faithfully represent their features and costumes. McKenney and Hall's work, in its entirety, is one of the most costly and important ever produced on the American Indians. It is rarely, indeed, that a chance occurs to procure any of the beautiful portraits in this series.

712 Canadian Expedition.—State of Expedition from Canada, as laid before the House of Commons and verified by evidence; with collection of authentic documents, and additions of many circumstances which were prevented from appearing before the House of Parliament. Written and collected by Lieut.-Gen. Burgoyne, and dedicated to the officers he commanded. Six maps. 8vo, pp. 311, boards, uncut, clean copy, $10.50. London, 1780.

713 War of 1812.—Letters on the late War between the United States and Great Britain, with other writings on the same subject, by William Cobbett. 8vo, pp. 407, boards, uncut, fair copy, $2.25. New York, 1815.

714 Colonies.—The Colonial Policy of Great Britain considered with relation to her North American Provinces and West India Possessions; wherein the dangerous tendency of American Competition is developed, and the necessity of re-commencing the Colonial System on a vigorous and extensive scale exhibited and defended; with plans for promotion of emigration, and stricture on the Treaty of Ghent, by a British Traveller. 12mo, pp. 260, $1.50. Scarce. Philadelphia, 1816.

715 North America.—History of North America, containing reviews of Customs and Manners of Original Inhabitants, first settlement of British Colonies, and their rise and progress from the earliest period to the time of their becoming united, free, and independent States; with an appendix, by the Rev. Mr. Cooper. 16mo, boards, pp. 264, $2.25. Albany, 1815.

716 Tecumseh.—Life of Tecumseh, and of his brother, The Prophet, with an historical sketch of Shawnee Indians, by Benjamin Drake. With illustrations. Post 8vo, cloth, $2.50. Rare. Cincinnati, 1856.

". . . . but to Canadians, whose fathers were the friends of his race, there remains the duty of perpetuating his memory. There is not in all history a nobler example of true manhood and patriotism."—Charles Mair.

717 Tecumseh.—Tecumseh, a Drama, by Charles Mair. Post 8vo, cloth, $1.25.
Toronto, 1886.
Acknowledged on all hands to be the most remarkable dramatic poem ever produced in Canada.

718 Colonies.—The Rights of Great Britain asserted against the Claims of America, being an answer to Declaration of General Congress. Third edition, with additions and folded table. 8vo, pp. 84, $1.25.
London, 1776.

719 Canada—Tour through North America, together with comprehensive view of the Canadas, etc. 8vo, pp. 484. Boards, uncut, rare, $2.50.
Edinburgh, 1835.

720 Nova Scotia—La Conduite des François Justifiée ou Observations sur un écrit anglois intitulé Conduite des François à l'égard de la Nouvelle-Ecosse, depuis son premier Etablissement jusqu'à nos jours, par le Sieur D.L.G.D.C., Avocat en Parlement. 12mo, pp. 264, boards, cloth back, $9.75. Very rare.
Utrecht, 1756.

721 British Monarchy—The British Monarchy; or, a New Chronographical Description of all the Dominions of Great Britain, Comprehending the British Isles, the American Colonies, the Electoral States, the African and Indian Settlements, the whole illustrated with suitable maps and tables, likewise adorned with head-pieces and other embellishments, by George Bickham. Sm. folio, old Russia, $18.
London, 17[illegible]9.
It is almost impossible to give an adequate account of this curious and beautiful book. Every page is completely engraved throughout, letter-press and all in an elegant manner, the full-page bird's eye views being especially well-done. The illustrations are continued through the American section, and represent characteristic scenery, aborigines, or natural products. The composing, the designing, and the engraving appears to have been done by one person, viz, George Bickham, the eminent engraver. The book is very scarce, only one other copy being known to us.

722 The Rebellion—Mission Ridge and Lookout Mountain: Life in the Camp and Field, by Benjamin F. Taylor. 8vo cloth, $1.25.
New York, 1872.

723 United States' Progress—Eighty Years' Progress of the United States, showing the various channels of industry and education through which the United States people have arisen from a British colony to their present national importance, by eminent literary men. With over 220 engravings. 2 vols., 8vo, $2.50.
New York, 1861.

724 Indians—American Tableau, No. 1; Sketches of Aboriginal Life, by V. V. Vide. Post 8vo, cloth, fair copy, 75c.
New York, 1846.

725 French Treaties—Memoirs of the Marquis of Torcy, etary of State to Louis XIV., containing the History of the gotiations from the Treaty of Ryswick to the Peace of Utrecht, anslated from the French. 2 vols., 8vo, calf, very rare, $2.50. London, 1757.

The Rebellion—The First Year of the War, by Edward A. Pollard, collected and improved ediiton. With steel portraits. 3vo, cloth, scarce, $1.50. New York, 1863.

The above is known as the Southern History of the War.

727 Washington and his Generals; or, Legends of the Revolution, by George Lippard, with a biographical sketch of the author, by C. Chauncey, Burr. 8vo, cloth, $1. Philadelphia, 1847.

Original edition.

728 New Jersey—The History of New Jersey, from its earliest settlement to the present time, edited by W. H. Carpenter and T. S. Arthur. Portrait on steel of Lewis Morris, and engraved title page. Post 8vo, cloth, $1. Philadelphia, 1853.

729 Kansas and Nebraska—The History, Geographical and Physical Characteristics, and Political Position of those Territories, an account of the Emigrant Aid Companies, and directions to emigrants, by Edward E. Hale. Map. Post 8vo, cloth, $1. Boston, 1854.

730 The Rebellion.—The Siege of Savannah, in December, 1864, and the Confederate Operations in Georgia and the Thirp Military District of South Carolina during General Sherman's March from Atlanta to the Sea, by Charles C. Jones, jr. 8vo, uncut, $1.50. Albany, 1874.

Privately printed for the author.

The object of this Work is to inspire and extend a taste for natural science. It is not a learned treatise, but a simple study. The title adopted indicates that the author has gathered from creation at large, often contrasting the smallest of its productions with the mightiest.

WITH WOLFE IN CANADA. Or, The winning of a Continent. By G. A. Henty. With 12 full-page illustrations by Gordon Browne. Crown 8vo, cloth elegant, olivine edges..... 2 00

In the present volume Mr. Henty has endeavoured to give the details of the principal events in the struggle between Britain and France for supremacy on the North American continent. The importance of this struggle can scarcely be overrated, as on the issues of it depended not only the destinies of North America, but to a large extent those of the mother countries themselves. The fall of Quebec decided that the Anglo-Saxon race should predominate in the New World, that Britain, and not France, should take the lead among the nations, and that English commerce, the English language, and English literature should spread right round the globe. While thus of the greatest significance, this episode from the world's history lends itself pre-eminently to the romantic style of treatment of which Mr. Henty is master.
